DELANAV

Delavan.—Funeral services for Milton S. Harrington, 92, Walworth county pioneer, were held Wednesday afternoon at the home of his niece, Mrs. Horace Utley. Interment was in the family lot in Spring Grove, beside his wife and daughter.

One of the most prominent and successful business men in the family lot in Spring Grove, beside his wife and daughter, brother, D. B. Harrington, Delavan, and three sons, Grant, Harrington, Elkhorn; H. H. Harrington, Waukesha; and E. A. Harrington, Jacksonville, Fla. In the passing of Milton S. Harrington, Delavan, loses its oldest inhabitant both in point of age and years of residence. He was born in the town of Potter, county of Yates, New York state, Oct. 30, 1839. His ancestors came from England to Rhode Island and he descended from Revolutionary stock. He worked on the Erie canal and came to Delavan when a boy. It has been his home practically ever since. He was a giant physically and a mechanical genius. He was a strong man mentally and was quoted as authority on local and national history. His health had been perfect during his long life up to a few months ago when he suffered a slight stroke and was taken to the county hospital. He improved for a time but a second shock came on the morning of August 5th. He never regained consciousness and died Monday evening, August 7.

Edward Austin, 49, a jeweler of this city, for the past 30 years, died at his home on Racine street at 4 p. m. Tuesday, after an illness of several months. He was born in Delavan on June 8, 1834. He is survived by his wife and three brothers, Frank, Portland, Ore.; Irving, Beloit; and Wallace, Delavan. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Hayes and Langdon, Janesville contractors, are pushing the work on the reconstruction of the grounds for the new Delavan high school.

The altar society of St. Andrew's church will hold a bake sale at the Sutton cottage at Delavan lake Sunday. Tuesday the altar society will hold a lawn social at the home of Mrs. James Dowling at Delavan lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koch and daughter are spending the week in Menomonee, Wis.

Mrs. Howard Sturtevant and daughter have returned to Racine after

BEANS! AND THEN A WIFE LAUGHED JUST FIT TO KILL

MARY McHAIN.

Do not hurt, Mrs. Silver-Wedding anniversary wife, if your husband sends you beans for a present—he probably forgot the date—the one incoming day.

"Surely," said mother to her little daughter, "daddy will remember our wedding day this time—because we are going and his letters do sound somewhat lonely." And sure enough, daddy did remember, for a package did come in the morning mail, and mother seemed so glad she put tears in her eyes. She was both proud and glad that daddy did remember for once (the never did before) and it was her silver wedding anniversary. In anxious haste (for mother just knew it was going to be something very nice), mother opened the box, a dainty wrapped card-board box. Her hands trembled so she could scarcely untie the string. It was ready to be opened—how mother's eyes flowed with fond anticipation.

Mrs. Silver-Wedding Anniversary wife, there were beans in that box—was beans, somewhat mouldy and not too young.

Did mother cry then, as daddy had forgotten after all, and after all the hard times she had of late—did mother cry? "Not on your life!" Mother is game—she laughed—peals and peels of merry laughter resounded through the house—and little daughter after one astonished glance.

"Hubby, I find a good many dead bugs in the kitchen lately."

"Oh, Mary, I'd better have my homebrew analyzed before I drink it!"

GAY MIDWAY IS FEATURE OF FAIR

Shows and Free Attractions Surpass Previous Years.

That for good clean entertainment the list of attractions at the Janesville fair this week surpasses those of previous years seems to be the consensus of opinion of hundreds of people who visited the grounds Tuesday afternoon. Fair officials planned to make the concessions of a high class type and from an inspection of the stands Tuesday their efforts seem to have been successful. Not only are the shows of a high class nature, but all of the concessions are being operated on a strictly tradeslike manner. Hundreds of visitors Tuesday enjoyed the free bills presented on the stand erected in front of the grandstand. All the sets were typical of those seen here before, but were presented in a thrilling and complete manner and seemed to please. The acts will be presented daily throughout the remainder of the week.

Midway in Gay.—The midway includes a ferris wheel, merry-go-round, whip, and sea plane, besides numerous vaudeville attractions. An Indian show, in which over 25 Indians appear, seems to prove popular, as well as several other smaller shows.

Through the courtesy of fair officials, free dancing was allowed on a platform near the grandstand, with music by a local orchestra. Throughout the day the Bower City band gave concerts.

Grounds Well Policed.—The midway abounded with carnival stands, all doing a thriving business. Several tented restaurants have been installed for the accommodation of fair visitors.

A complete staff of deputy police have been assigned to duty on the grounds. They are John O'Leary, G. O. Boyd, Charles Young, W. K. McDermott, Robert Stanton, Charles Kay, Robert Young, Charles Neave, W. M. Nasser, John Timmons, and Leo Lennart.

Those working at the gates and at the grandstand are Edward Mead, Edward Teubert, John Smith, Harry Siegel, Eugene Fish, William Mulligan, T. Proctor, James Finley, John Finley, Willard Crook, Edward Allen and E. E. Van Pool.

Rotardale Cuts Local Attendance at Phantom Camp

Janesville will send eight boys to Phantom lake for two weeks, starting Thursday. This is an unusually small number, but the large number attending Camp Rotardale for the past few years has decreased the popularity of Phantom. Four years ago about 100 Janesville delegates equaled that of Milwaukee and other large cities.

The boys will go Thursday morning in automobiles to the camp, situated between here and Milwaukee, near Mukwonago.

Those going are: Walter Anderson, Willie Henke, Herbert Holse, Conrad Knick, Norman Kinner, Lowell Lowth, Kenneth McMillan, and Lyle Wood.

FORT ATKINSON

Fort Atkinson.—A move for enhancing the scenic beauties of the city by improvements along the river, has begun by the removal of unsightly wooden piers in the river east of the main street bridge. They were used as ice breakers. These piers will be built further up the river in order not to obstruct the river.

The fire alarm whistles were sounded at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday when the barn of Cavalry Troop H. was on fire. The blaze was put out before any injury was done to the equipment. The hay barn was partly burned and about six tons of hay was spoiled.

On August 12th the Chautauqua will open in this city. Many distinguished speakers will be on the program, among them are: Randall Parrish, the novelist, Mayor Joseph Arney, Neva L. Boyd, recreation training school teacher of Chicago, Martha Wylie, reader and impersonator, Tom Corwin, humorist, the Givlin artist trio, Esther Heldebrand, dramatic reader, besides many other artists in various lines. Senator La Follette spoke in the

JEFFERSON

Jefferson.—Another month will see the Jefferson county circuit in session before Judge George Grimm. There are several important cases on the calendar for the term which opens Sept. 11. Chief among these are those growing out of the attack on the Max Schlosser home at Farmington last August. Three men are held.

Eight women are on the jury panel for the session. They are Mrs. Anna Kispert, Jefferson; Mrs. Beatrice Kindlin, Fort Atkinson; Mrs. Evelyn McCune, Jefferson; Mrs. Marie Nook, Jefferson township; Mrs. Nellie Schaub, Watertown; Mrs. Helen Schimmel, Watertown; Mrs. Ella Wilder, Watertown; and Miss Norma Ziebell, Aztalan. The men are:

Frank Atkins, Watertown; George J. Brandell, Sumner; Guy Burdick, Ixonia; John Dehnke, Lake Mills town; Ben Berg, Jefferson; George Bulwinkle, Jefferson; Emil Brandell, Fort Atkinson; Arthur Beck, Jefferson; George Burmaster, Watertown; Merrill S. Darmuth, Koshkonong; Frank Guhr, Lake Mills town; W. J. Gornley, Watertown; Gordon Hix, Sullivan; Albert Kispert, Farmington; John Kohlhoof, Watertown; Ernst Krohn, Sullivan; E. S. Kippes, Jefferson; Paul Lang, Farmington; E. A. Mendenhall, Watertown; Arthur R. Noon, Watertown town; John W. Robbins, Sumner; Walter Snell, Fort Atkinson; William Schilling, Jefferson town; Will J. Seitz, Jefferson; Fred Scherwitz, Sumner; W. P. Tiedel, Oakland; Julius Volkmann, Watertown town.

Lyric opera house, Tuesday night. Mrs. H. L. Hoard and daughter, Elizabeth, returned from Madison on Tuesday.

Mayor Weld has been asked to take charge of the arrangements here for the Red Crown celebration in Madison, the last part of August. Will Whitney, Kent, Washington, who has been visiting old friends here went to Cambridge, Tuesday, from Watertown. Normal school, Kindergarten department, will teach in Chicago Heights, Ill., next year. Miss Vera Olson who graduated from Whitesboro Normal school, Kindergarten department, will teach in Chicago Heights, Ill., next year. Misses J. P. and Urban Schreiner and Miss Roberta Burdard were Madison visitors Tuesday.

TO FILE BRIEFS IN PENSION SQUABBLE

Grimm Awaits Written Arguments in Case of Klein vs. City.

Judge George Grimm will decide whether Henry C. Klein, former city chief, is entitled to a pension of $650 or $300 a year. The arguments of City Attorney Roger C. Cunningham and P. C. Burpee, attorney for Klein, will be presented in writing to the court.

The action started when an alternative writ of mandamus was recently issued to make the board of the firemen's pension fund show cause why they should not be compelled to pay Klein $900.

The case hinges on whether Klein was chief and city electrician at the time he retired. The city claims he was not and Klein claims he was performing the duties of both but did not qualify as city electrician.

The romance of the west still lives. It is interesting to see the old trails of the forty-niners. Go west for your summer vacation. The travel bureau of the Gazette will help you.

ORFORDVILLE

Orfordville—At the close of the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday, lunch was served in the dining room, after which a census for the coming year's finances was instituted. After soliciting those present, the committee went to the country. While the canvass was not completed, the outlook for the coming year was pronounced excellent. Dr. Miller and family returned Friday, after camping two weeks at the lake. Ernest Husted and family returned from Wisconsin Rapids Sunday, where they visited relatives.

MARSHALL NEILAN
PRESENTS
Freckles Barry
IN "PENROD"

A cast of 50 selected players, portray in every detail Booth Tarkenton's popular book and play.
No doubt you are all familiar with Freckles Barry who has appeared in several productions with Mary Pickford, also in Neilan's "Go and Get It," and "School Days."
Freckles Barry appeared personally a short time ago, at the Chicago Theatre at the same time that Penrod was running. All the Chicago papers pronounced "Penrod" with Freckles Barry, far superior to any previous production in which he appeared.
"Penrod" is produced by Marshall Neilan through the first National Picture Corp., and is not to be classified as an ordinary picture. Not only the length of the picture, which is 5 reels, but the cost of the production will assure you 100% satisfaction.
The manager recommends this picture very highly and wishes to announce that this production is a late release and not a repeat. It is a picture that will appeal to all, young and old. In order to give all the children an opportunity to see this picture we are arranging the low prices as follows:

STATE FAIR CLASS
WITH SHORTHORNSRecord Breaking Exhibit of Dual Purpose Stock at Fair Here.

Rock county first in Shorthorns! It is a fact that was evident to all at the Janesville fair where a representative collection of 150 of these dual purpose animals of the milking, the beef or Scotch top and the Pole Shorthorns.

Such an extensive exhibit and of such quality has been unknown at any county fair in Wisconsin before. The Shorthorn exhibit was composed of 150 of these dual purpose animals of the milking, the beef or Scotch top and the Pole Shorthorns.

There were a number of good breeders having crack herds who were unable to exhibit. Experienced judges, after looking the fair over and knowing the merit of some of the other herds not represented, expressed the opinion that "Rock county could not be beat for Shorthorns."

Will Continue Showing

The Shorthorn breeders will complete their plans for showing in Madison and Milwaukee under the Rock county banner and three fair herds will be represented.

The king of the exhibit is Walter Grove Duke a giant white bull owned by the Marquand brothers, Milton Junction. While this bull is not really in shape for the fair, he is necessary to round him out, he tips the scales now at 2,700 pounds. He has beauty and type and is backed by a heavy production line of breeders. The Duke won honors at the Chicago International his only rival for weight and general class for an extremely heavy milking Shorthorn is Walgrove Snowstorm, owned by Roney brothers. These two Rock county Shorthorn sires are half brothers and both have the same general breed characteristics.

The Traylor Herd

But Walgrove Duke has rivals for the Janesville grand champion. Robert Traylor son of Mr. Peter Traylor, pioneer breeder has a herd of 10 head at the fair. The herd is led by the Duke, a type red bull that will weigh more than a ton. One of the best animals at the fair is Traylor's heifer Queenston Belle, the second, a daughter of the grand champion cow. This young heifer is hard to equal for beauty and conformation. A third daughter of the famous Queenston Belle is being shown, the two animals being produce of dam. Traylor has four daughters sired by Kingella Duke, the famous Rock county bull, holding a world's record in weight with 3,015 pounds. Clara Belle Sunshine and other good animals in this display herd.

Milking Shorthorns

James Hadden and son have a small herd at the fair headed by Telluria's Fame, a grand champion bull at the state fair last year. The summer bull has recovered. He is in the running for the final decision of the judges as to the grand champion here. There is a young heifer Duke's Beauty, a daughter of the stock breeder's eye. In addition to four fine heifers, Hadden has a senior bull calf and a senior heifer of marked quality. One of the heifers, Nellie's Queen Maid is a grand daughter of Queenston Duke, an International winner.

Dan Mannan, Hanover road, has a herd of young stock good enough to win ribbons, including a fine two year old heifer, winner of the grand championship here last year.

Frank Arnold and sons have six head of young stock, including a fine two year old heifer, winner of the grand championship here last year.

Albion, a young heifer Duke's Beauty, a daughter of the stock breeder's eye. In addition to four fine heifers, Hadden has a senior bull calf and a senior heifer of marked quality. One of the heifers, Nellie's Queen Maid is a grand daughter of Queenston Duke, an International winner.

Beautiful Fireworks Display

Words of praise for the magnificent display of fireworks were heard from the top of the tower into a hundred feet across from the stands, hundreds of dollars worth of fireworks were displayed. The exhibit rivals any display ever seen in the state. It will be seen nightly.

Those who attended Tuesday night were thrilled by the flying leap of Charles E. Cole, Adrian, Mich., from the top of the tower into a hundred feet across from the stands, hundreds of dollars worth of fireworks were displayed. The exhibit rivals any display ever seen in the state. It will be seen nightly.

Most of the concessions on the grounds are owned by William Gause, Reelfoot, Ind., who was praised highly Wednesday by fair officials for their exceptionally high quality.

The Pole Shorthorns are the same as the others in the other two classes but have been developed without horns. Imperial and the Second is the herd sire. Recently five bulls from this herd were sold to Missouri buyers for an average of $500 apiece.

Championship Stock

Princess Sultana is the proud mother of the herd at the fair. Her show type and quality has won championship and grand championships at the international, state and county fairs, and she looks good to win again in any competition. Lockinsdale, another good cow, has a pure white calf at her side and evidences plenty of the Sultan breeding. She sold for $1,000 in the sale ring as a two year old. The breeding to dehorn the Shorthorns, it is claimed by the Pole type breeders, has improved the breed.

There will be a great judging contest in the Shorthorn cattle, especially in the milking strain. There will probably be four prize bulls lined up for the first place in the aged class and the grand champion will be awarded to a sire that can stand the test in any competition in the United States.

Boynton Herd

Boynton brothers, Avalon, are showing 20 head of their hornless Shorthorns that are a credit to the breed and to the county. They will go to the state fairs and make a fair circuit.

Ray Boynton has been breeding the Pole Shorthorns in Rock county for 25 years and the brothers have more than 200 on their farms. One herd is of the best type and the other developed to the milking strain.

LEGION PICKS MEN
FOR STATE MEET

Kamps, Gross Chosen to Go to Beloit—Milton Legion Is Organized.

Delegates to represent the Richard Bliss post, American Legion, at the state convention at Beloit, August 24, 25 and 26, were elected at a meeting Tuesday night, after which 50 went to Milton to organize the post.

Ralph Kamps, local commander, and John Gross were selected as delegates, while Dr. W. T. Clark and Ray Barnes are alternate delegates. They represent the local post, while many others from here will attend the sessions, which will be open to all ex-service men.

The legion will put on some auto races at the fair grounds the latter part of August. It was decided, the executive committee to handle the affair.

The meeting at Milton of the Randolph post, was the first one held under the new charter, secured with the help of the local post. Albert Kelly was elected commander; Dr. H. H. Bussewitz, vice commander; G. E. Crandall, financial officer; Don Borger, adjutant; Walter Holliday, chaplain; E. F. Oakley, sergeant-at-arms; E. R. Cleland, quartermaster, and E. L. Bond, historian.

Ralph Kamps acted as chairman during the election, and installed the officers later with the aid of Leo Ford, local sergeant-at-arms. Commander Kelly and Adjutant Borger were selected as delegates to the convention, while Holmes and Burdick were chosen alternates. The post was presented with a flag by Willis Clark of the G. A. R.

Two men from Beloit, Herbert Cox and Floyd Henderson, were present, and extended the invitation to attend the convention. Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary.
